YM Schedules Soaring Exhibit

The Torrance YMCA will sponsor an open house program featuring representatives from the Southern California Soaring Society on Friday, Jan. 27th at 8 p.m. at the Torrance YMCA.

The program will include movies and color slides of soaring in addition to the display of a sailplane owned by James Meckoll, a local soaring pilot from Long Beach.

Before your eyes you will see the story of motorless flight. Relive the story of man's dream to fly like the birds, no motor — no noise — no odor of gasoline.

Master of ceremonies will be Leonard Kane of the YMCA and guest speakers will be Jack Lambie, famous soaring pilot from Santa Fe Springs, featured on TV, and Wilson Barnes of Santa Monica, vice-California Soaring Assn.

All families and their friends are invited and there is no charge for the program. The Torrance YMCA is located at 2080 Washington Ave., near Arlington and Plaza del Amo, phone FA 8-1272.

JOHN ANDERSON
Funeral services for John Anderson, 61, of 1603 W. 220th St., will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at the A. M. Gamby Mortuary Chapel, Lomita, with Pastor William Roleder of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance officiating. Mr. Anderson, a resident of the area for 30 years, died Thursday. He was a native of Norway.

He is survived by his widow, Himla; two sons, Roland Lunde of Corona and Martin Lunde of New Jersey; a daughter, Elsie Berkstresser of Torrance; six grandchildren, and a brother and sister in Norway.

Interment will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

MRS. VAN VELKINBURGH
Funeral services for Venell Chapman Van Velkinburgh, 70, of 437 W. Carson St., will be held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel at 1 p.m. Tuesday with the Rev. J. W. Hardin of the Lomita Baptist Church officiating.

Mrs. Velkinburgh, a native of Texas, had resided here 22 years before her death Thursday. She is survived by a daughter, Ruth McFather; a granddaughter, Mrs. Loyd Hatch of Utah, and five great-grandchildren.

Interment will be in Green Hills Memorial Park.

North High Grads Win Cal Kudos

Torrance's North High School has been awarded an Award of Merit for the performance of its graduates at the Universities of California, according to word received by school officials.

This is the second consecutive year that North High has received the award, which means that the averages of its graduates are "B" or better. It covers work done last year by freshmen graduates of the local school. Last year, North High was one of 32 throughout the state which were given such an award.

A certificate will be sent to the school, Frank L. Kidner, university dean of educational relations, said in the letter.

Square Dance Class Rolls Still Open

Registrations for beginning square dance instruction are still open for Thursday night classes sponsored by the Belles and Buoys, it was announced here yesterday by Mrs. William A. Adams.

Classes are held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. each Thursday at the Hi-Loft at 2013 Pacific Coast Hwy. in Lomita. Barney Finrock, popular with square dancers throughout the area, is calling the dances for the classes.

Mrs. Adams, who resides at 6405 Corsini Place, San Pedro, may be contacted for details on the classes, or on other activities of the Belles and Buoys.

Elementary Pupils Visit Junior High

Pupils from ten elementary schools visited Stephen M. White Junior High school on Tuesday, Jan. 17, to get acquainted with the twenty-five acre educational plant which will be their school home for the next three years.

Junior high school pupils from the leadership group, under the direction of Mrs. Iola Watkins, acted as guides for the visitors. After a four-minute refreshment stop in the cafeteria, the pupils assembled in the auditorium for a short welcome assembly in which the school glee club, band, and girls' drill team performed.

This visit, a high point in the lives of these youngsters, is arranged to help smooth their transfer to junior high school from elementary school.

Rubbish Firm Offers Free Trash Plans

Free rubbish collection has been offered to all churches within the city limits of Torrance, also all Little League fields within the same limits by the All-American Rubbish Co., 23310 Arlington, it was announced this week by Raymond Winton, president.

The All-American Rubbish Co. representative will try to contact all those who will need rubbish collection because of the city council decision to discontinue service to multiple units, commercials and industrial as of March 1.

Multiple unit owners will not be required to separate their trash. Bottles, cans, weeds, paper, garbage, etc., all go into one container, he said. Any type of container desired can be supplied by All-American.

Committee Named for FDR Dinner

A committee was named this week to head arrangements in the 46th Assembly District for the FDR Dinner, "A Salute to President Kennedy," set Feb. 18, at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Chairman of the committee is Charles Sohner, Manhattan Beach. Co-chairman is Fred Allen of Rolling Hills.

Other members include Harold Thomasian, Paul Jacobs,

William Gilbert, Alan Jonas, and Dr. Frank Sullivan.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from committee members of from Democratic club presidents in the area.

More than 1700 persons are expected to attend the Kennedy salute, which marks the fifth annual FDR Dinner. Kennedy spoke at the dinner in 1958, and a member of his cabinet will represent him this year, Sohner said.

Tickets will cost $25 per plate and 50 per cent of the proceeds will be used to defray recent campaign expenses.
